Emmett A. Rogers

Emmett Alton Rogers, 91, died Monday, June 25, 2001, in a local hospital.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, with the Rev. Dr. C.K. Robertson officiating. Burial will be in Memory Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Rogers was born on June 28, 1909, in Sparta. He came to Milledgeville in 1922 to attend Georgia Military College. Upon graduation, he attended Georgia Institute of Technology and graduated with a bachelor's degree in management.

He was a member of the Kappa Alpha Order. After retiring from the U.S. Department of Treasury, he was an officer with All Farm Sales Real Estate and was an independent appraiser. He was a member of Milledgeville Rotary Club and a recipient of the Paul Harris Fellow Award. He was a member and past president of Milledgeville Georgia Tech Alumni Club. Active with the local and state Republican Party, he served as chairman of the local party and vice chairman of the 10th District. He recently was honored at the Georgia 10th Congressional District for his many years of service to the Republican Party. He was also a Mason and was a member of Benevolent Lodge No.3 for 58 years. He was K. Y. C. H. recipient and was the Grand Commander of the State of Georgia in 1959, for the Grand Commandery of Georgia Knights Templar.

He was a member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, where he served on the Vestry for many years. He was married for 53 years to Frances Bonner Rogers.

Survivors include a son, Emmett Alton Rogers Jr. of Macon; a daughter, Patricia Rogers Tripp of Athens; and five grandchildren, John Hamilton Tripp, Elizabeth Summerall Tripp, Saralyn Rogers, Cassandra Rogers Beall and Amy Rogers Duelev.
